ALTERATIONS & ATELIER SERVICES POLICIES

THANK YOU FOR CHOOSING STUDIO VIEMAGE. WE ARE COMMITTED TO PROVIDING PROFESSIONAL CRAFTSMANSHIP, THOUGHTFUL SERVICE, AND TRANSPARENT COMMUNICATION. PLEASE REVIEW THE FOLLOWING POLICIES PRIOR TO BOOKING YOUR APPOINTMENT.

APPOINTMENTS & CONSULTATIONS

All services begin with a consultation and garment assessment.

Alteration estimates are provided based on the condition of the garment and the scope of work discussed during the fitting. In some cases, additional work may be required once construction details are revealed during the alteration process.

Consultation fees may be applied toward approved work orders where applicable.

FITTINGS

Clients are responsible for attending scheduled fitting appointments.

Garments should be brought with the shoes, undergarments, shapewear, or accessories intended to be worn with the finished garment whenever possible.

Studio Viemage is not responsible for fit concerns resulting from changes in footwear, undergarments, body measurements, or styling decisions made after the fitting process.

DEPOSITS & PAYMENT

Deposits are non-refundable once work has commenced, materials have been purchased, or studio time has been allocated to the project.

The remaining balance is due upon completion and prior to the release of any garment, artwork, or commissioned piece unless otherwise agreed upon in writing.

Completed garments, textile artworks, and commissioned projects remain the property of Studio Viemage until payment has been received in full.

Studio Viemage reserves the right to suspend work on any project where payment arrangements have not been fulfilled.

TURNAROUND TIMES

Estimated completion dates are provided as a courtesy and may be adjusted depending on workload, garment complexity, client responsiveness, or unforeseen circumstances. Rush services may be available for an additional fee and are subject to scheduling availability.

BRIDAL & FORMALWEAR

Bridal and formalwear alterations should be booked as early as possible. Due to the complexity of these garments, final pricing cannot be guaranteed until the garment has been assessed and fitted. Additional fittings or changes requested after the original scope of work may result in additional charges.

CLIENT-SUPPLIED GARMENTS

Studio Viemage treats every garment with care and respect. However, clients acknowledge that alterations involve working with existing garments, fabrics, trims, and construction methods that may be delicate, aged, damaged, poorly manufactured, altered previously, or otherwise unpredictable. While every effort is made to achieve the desired outcome, Studio Viemage cannot guarantee results where fabric integrity, previous workmanship, or garment condition may affect the final result.

Studio Viemage reserves the right to donate, dispose of, or otherwise manage unclaimed items after reasonable attempts have been made to contact the client.

RIGHT TO REFUSE SERVICE

Studio Viemage reserves the right to refuse service, decline projects, or discontinue work at its sole discretion.

This includes, but is not limited to:

- Requests that exceed available timelines or studio capacity
- Garments that are excessively damaged, unsanitary, contaminated, or unsafe to handle
- Projects that cannot reasonably achieve the client's desired outcome
- Requests that fall outside the studio's areas of expertise

CREATIVE & RECONSTRUCTION PROJECTS

Garment redesigns, reconstruction projects, memory garments, and custom textile artwork are collaborative creative services.

Because these projects are highly individualized, final outcomes may vary from initial concepts and are not eligible for refunds once work has commenced.

OUR COMMITMENT

At Studio Viemage, we believe clothing, textiles, and handmade objects carry stories. Whether we are adjusting a hem, restoring a treasured garment, or creating a one-of-a-kind textile artwork, every project is approached with care, craftsmanship, and respect for the people and stories behind it.

Studio Viemage reserves the right to decline alteration requests where the requested modifications may compromise the structural integrity, appearance, safety, or intended function of the garment.
